RECEPTION AND DANCE.

To Miss Marie Nichols at the Canario Residence.

One of the prettiest functions of the season was the reception and dance tendered to Miss Marie Nichols by Mrs. J. S. Canario and daughters last Friday evening. Miss Nichols is a Native Daughter of the Golden West, one of San Francisco's most charming belles, whose lively disposition and kindness of heart must win favor wherever she goes.

The spacious drawing rooms and dining room of the Canario residence were transformed into a ballroom with beautiful decorations in blue and gold silks, with a profusion of ferns and flowers scattered throughout the room and over the lanais.

A quintette of stringed instruments furnished music of a most delightful character, and the dancing was continued to a late hour, refreshments being served at various intervals.

Those present were: Mesdames Canario, W. J. Stone, Stone, Bidgood, Reid, Laurence, Smith, Lyman, Arnaud; Misses Eaton, Hapai 3, Richardson, Loebenstein 2, Stone, Weight, Farquhar, Peck 2, Wery, Souza 2, Venable, Sumner, Canario 2, Nichols, Rose, Marlin; Messrs. ## BOARD OF TRADE.

Discusses Matter of Interest to Property Owners and Investors.

At the Special Meeting of the Board of Trade of Hilo held at Fireman's Hall last Friday evening, for the purpose of making sundry additions to By-law, Mr. Richards drew attention to the fact that the Territorial Government could not accept the roadways running through Puno Reeds Island, and Villa Franca, as said roads had not been constructed in accordance to law, the regulations providing that roadways shall be built not less than fifty feet wide. The roads mentioned are only forty feet in width, and property owners would be compelled to grant the additional ten feet right of way before the government would assume control.

Mr. Richards thought that this would meet with considerable opposition from the property holders and that some steps should be taken with a view to having this law repealed at the next session of the Legislature. Mr. Brughelli, and others, argued that a fifty foot road was none to wide, and believed that property holders would gladly cede the necessary right of way, as such action would tend to increase the value of their holdings.

No definite action was taken in the premises. Mr. Brughelli advocated the building of a road from Pihonua to Kaiwika, which would give settlers in that section access to markets for their produce. He claimed that the soil of Hawaii would produce vegetables and fruits in such quantities as would support settlers with reasonably large families, and that fruit raising and small farming should be encouraged.

Mr. Terry supported Mr. Brughelli in his arguments and gave an exhaustive discourse on "Coffee and Coffee Culture," which proved vastly entertaining and instructive to many of the planters present whose methods of handling had not been quite so successful as those of Mr. Terry. In reply to Mr. Turner, the Secretary stated that nothing definite was known regarding the transfer of the Reeds Island bridge.

Shipman Luau.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Shipman gave an elaborate luau and farewell dance at their home in Riverside Park Wednesday night to their son Ollie Shipman, who leaves this morning for California, where he will resume his studies in veterinary surgery. Covers were laid for forty guests, and the feast of Hawaiian delicacies was of the rarest and choicest known to the native epicure. Music was furnished by the Waikae string quartette during the luau and the dancing which continued until a late hour. A most enjoyable evening was spent by the host of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Shipman and their popular son.

Elks' Pedro Contest.

The result of the Elks' pedro tournament remained unchanged after Saturday night's playing. J. W. McIntosh and H. L. Williams of Puna were easily the winning team, scoring 12 out of the 13 games played. There were several teams tied for second honors, with a score of eight out of the series, but after the first night's play none of the players were able to make any headway against the winning team. Mr. Williams received a silver smoking set and Mr. McIntosh a handsome pair of military brushes.

J. U. SMITH FOR SENATOR.

The Home Rule Leader Asks Endorsement From Both Parties.

Honolulu, Oahu, H. T., May 12.—Almo-toincident with the time that J. U. Smith of Hilo, successful candidate for the office of County Attorney of East Hawaii, was breaking into the Young Men's Republican Club over a bridge of oaths and affidavits—at about the same identical moment, he was writing to the Home Rule leaders of this city for a "letter of recommendation." The author of the letter of recommendation, now in the hands of John U., is Kupihea, secretary of the Home Rule party. Kupihea said: "I made the letter strong. Smith I think is going to Washington and wants Roosevelt to believe that he has the confidence of the leaders among the Hawaiians. I made the letter strong and if the President reads it, he will know that John U. Smith is the best haole Home Ruler in Hawaii."

J. U. Smith is the arch-politician of East Hawaii in so far as activity and initiative goes. He has promoted the candidacy of Parsons for Judge, and will probably use his Home Rule letter of recommendation to convince Jack Atkinson that he is a way-upper with the Hawaiians.

Kupihea says J. U. Smith will probably be the next Home Rule Senator from East Hawaii, although personally, he would prefer to see Senator John T. Brown returned.

Secretary Kupihea says the Home Rule party is a little shaky in Honolulu but is stronger than ever on Maui and Hawaii. Kupihea is so confident of the situation on Hawaii that he even now is willing to predict who will be the Representatives and Senators elected on that island next fall. In East Hawaii, Kupihea says the four Representatives will be: Wm. Keolanui, T. B. Ah Leong, Tony Fernandez and Thos. Naleihua. In West Hawaii he believes Kariho, Pulaa and S. Lazzaro will be sent up. The Senators he names are Sam Pua and either John T. Brown. The Home Rule party in East Hawaii is under the management of Fernandez, Ah Leong, Keolanui with J. U. Smith, the mistrusted adviser, since he took the Young Republican oath.

Marine Intelligence.

Office of the Assistant to the Inspector of the Twelfth Lighthouse District, 35 Alexander Young Building, Honolulu, T. H., May 16, 1904.

Notice to Mariners, Honolulu Harbor Entrance, Island of Oahu.

In Notice to Mariners from this office, dated February 2, 1904, it was stated that the mid-channel buoy, nun, marking the fairway entrance to Honolulu harbor, T. H., had been removed, owing to dredging operations then in progress. As the dredging operations on the bar and outside approaches of Honolulu harbor have just been completed, notice is hereby given that a red, nun buoy, marked "2" in white, has this day been placed in 30 feet of water, 50 yards S.E. by E. (Mag.) from the former position of what was known as the mid-channel buoy, on the following magnetic bearings:

Chimney of sewer pumping station, N.E.
Honolulu range light station, N. by E. Right tangent of Quarantine Island, N.N.W. ¼ W.

This buoy should be left on the starboard hand in entering.

Notice is also hereby given that the iron spar buoy, red, marked "2," which formerly marked the starboard hand entrance of the 18-foot channel, has this day been permanently discontinued, and only one channel is now recognized for entering Honolulu harbor, of which the red, nun buoy, No. 2, this day placed, is the starboard hand entrance buoy.

The newly dredged channel is 240 feet wide and gives 34 feet water across the bar. The entrance range, N. 25° E. (true), gives practically the same depth of water as heretofore, as it skirts the eastern edge of the new 34-foot channel. This new channel requires that the Honolulu harbor light (red, front, range light) be rebuilt in a new position about 40 feet west of its present site, and until such time as this may be effected and notice given vessels drawing over 25 feet should enter the channel a little to the westward of the range, or, in other words, keep the lighthouse open a little to the eastward of the rear range mark and steer a mid-channel course between the buoys and beacons as heretofore. This will carry them through the 34-foot channel.

By order of the Lighthouse Board.
A. P. NIBLACK,
Lieutenant-Commander U. S. N.,
Assistant to the Inspector of the Twelfth Lighthouse District.
